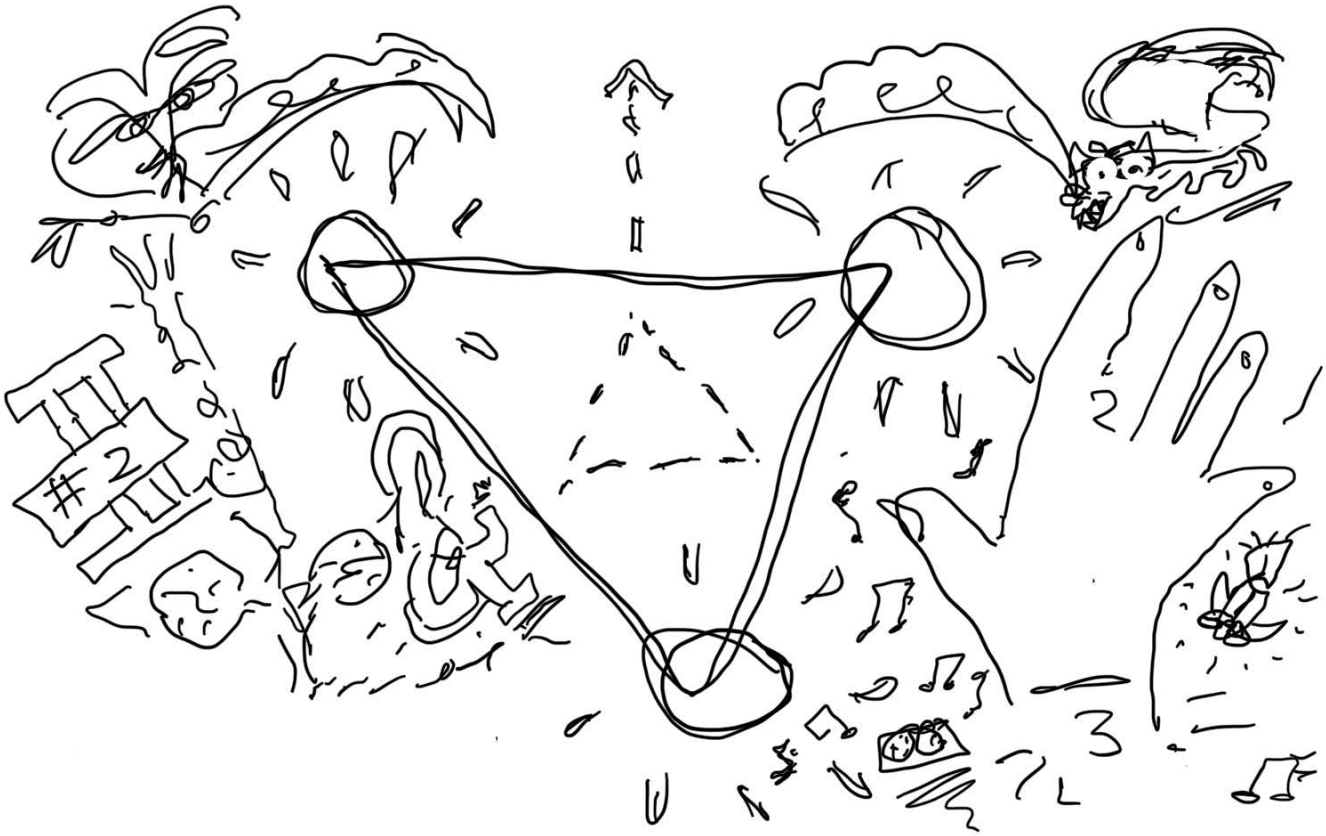
Matt "Cerulean" Cross Thiede



Emperor Pernu

No blank slates
No blank pages
Who is this mage?
I am the end of all lies
I am flashlights and mushrooms
I am the green in the ground
I am the trouble you always wish you had
To make your dreams come true
I am the worm in the garden
Eating the fruit you left behind
I am the future
On rewind
I am the deck wash
For your play thing
I am the house
To your cards
I am sweetly suit up on standby
You are the event
I am
The motion in the ocean of the star that drowned in tears
And we're all right here
Dead leaves blow into the mezzanine
And hate is all alone
Fuck a lonely crone
Tomorrow is joy repeating
I am the replacement
For your tabernacle.

True Love

True love
Is celestial bodies arguing
Over what to wear
To the banquet

Smoking Song

So many worlds
Inside this egg
As I shift my gaze
Arch my neck
From shoulder to shoulder
What happens
To the scene
The sprout within the seed
Green of pumpkins borne of water
Journey through the body
Teeth make noise: sustenance
Reborn in the soil
My mother's mother's mothers
Curled up for a nap
Eyes flicker
Light inside
And the purple underwater moon
Of flowers in the shadow of the sun
Liquid courage of herbs and water
Flick the tongue
Towards infinity
And forever replaying
At the base of your spine
Tomorrow is yesterday's yester year
And we are the Qigong
Of the moment:
A green fly
With red eyes
Talking to turtles
On the screen door
The air says yes
My heart says
We exist, yes
Rustling
Like so many Leaves
Talking heavy
Light some ways
Roots to flourish
Under bellies of dew

Love is building
Ripe and trilling
Bodies chiming
Lemon filling
One and seven
Tucked and chilling
Party billing
Trite is yester
Day is willing Never blank
Is drought
Bud
Willing

Simple Syrup

When you turn in again
To caress your glowing self,
And all your words fall into place,
Let the the zy-zy-zygotes
Crawl up your legs
Into your belly
Until that freshly cured body feel
Smells like roses
Any day of the week
And grammar is liquid bliss
To fill the holes in your heart
As you bend towards power
With enough spoons
For a feast
And so many pretty spiders
Eating berries with a swoon
And cream for later
Let it stand
For nipples and playtime
Après horas

All the neighbors
Playing music
On that brand new solar system
Eating donuts
Glazed and sprinkled
Emboldened within a grain of sand

Time is a buffalo
Flattening the grass
In every prairie at noon high
Trilling a baggie full of mushrooms
And the only perfect DQ Blizzard of 2022

Big Daddy Sunshine

Existential glee
And metaphysical bounty
Please, and thank you, and release . . .
Bliss,
Nice to meet you:
Worlds within worlds
Wrapped up in your tender heart-song

Where terror dissolves
Like Splenda
In a bucket full of coffee
As you sing me home
On dragon's breath
Diving deep
For babies and eyelashes
In a storm of happy Sundays

Turn around
So I can kiss you
As rumors fade like sunset
Into the glowing hills
Of our love

Waking up with you
To soothe the earthquake in our bellies
Dancing in the kitchen
Over breakfast, lunch, and dinner
And a fitting summer snack

Think small

Be my Sweet Big Daddy Sunshine trip
My chance to win it all
