

Goddess
(African) Isong: Goddess of Fertility
(African) Oshun Goddess of love, pleasure, beauty, and dancing
(Assyro-Babylonian) Astarte, Great Mother Goddess, associated with the planet Venus
(Celtic) Eostre or Ostara: Goddess of spring and fertility
(Celtic) (Eriu) Eire: The Triple Mother Goddess of Erin, sometimes known as Ir, from which Ireland - the land of Ir-is derived; shapeshifter and goddess of sovereignty of the land
(Celtic) Rosemerta, Goddess of fertility, beauty, and love
(Celtic) Morrigan: Dark Lady and Queen of Sea, death and magic (Celtic) Aife or Aoife, Consort of the sea God Manannan
(Celtic) Ailín, Goddess of affection, romance, and love
(Celtic) Aine, Goddess of earth and sun, queen of the faery folk, mate to Lugh
(Celtic) Airmid, Goddess of Witchcraft & herb lore
(Celtic) Andraste or Andrasta, Goddess of fertility, warrior, victory
(Celtic) Anu, Danu, Goddess of knowledge, healing, and fertility
(Celtic) Ardwinna, Goddess of the forest and woods
(Celtic) Arianrhod, Stellar and lunar Goddess, her place is the coronas borealis, known as caer Arianrhod (the northern crown) Magic, female independence, virginity, the moon
(Celtic) Artio, Goddess of fertility and wildlife, portrayed as a bear
(Celtic) Badb or Badhbh, Druidess of the Tuatha de Danann and Goddess of war, inspiration, fury and wisdom
(Celtic) Banba, Goddess of the sacred land
(Celtic) Belisama, Young Goddess of fire whose name means like unto flame, and the bright and shining one, wife of Belenus
(Celtic) Belisana, Goddess of healing, laughter, and the forest; associated with the sun's warmth and woodland plant and
(Celtic) Blodeuwedd, Beautiful and treacherous, sun and moon Goddess associated with the white owl, the dawn, primroses, broom, cockle, oak and meadowsweet
(Celtic) Bo Find, Goddess of fertility
(Celtic) Boan or Boim Boanna, Mother of the herd, Goddess of fertility, inspiration, and the river Boyne, wife of Dagda
(Celtic) Caer, Goddess swan maiden, wife of Angus
(Celtic) Cilleac Bheur, Goddess of winter, whose staff can freeze the ground and wither the crops
(Celtic) Clíodna, Bird Goddess and faerie queen associated with extraordinary beauty, shapeshifting, apples, and accompanied by three magical birds
(Celtic) Coventina, Goddess of well and the womb earth; associated with healing springs, sacred wells, childbirth, renewal, and (Celtic) Dana or Danu, The mother goddess from whom Tuatha De Danann were descended; Goddess of nature, wisdom, and (Celtic) Dá Grien, The daughter of the sun
(Celtic) Étain or Eithne, Goddess of beauty, grace, and wife of King Midir; one of the white ladies, of the faery
(Celtic) Eiluned or Elen, Elen Lwyddawg Powerful of leadership and war
(Celtic) Eri of the Golden Hair: Goddess of Love and Sexuality
(Celtic) Findabair: Goddess of Connacht and the Otherworld; of beauty, grace and love
(Celtic) Flidhas: Goddess of the woodlands, protector of animals and forests; associated with the doe
(Celtic) Hertha: Goddess of Fertility, spring, the Earth, rebirth, and healing
(Celtic) Kerridwen or Ceridwyn, Ceridwyn: Goddess of Knowledge and Wisdom, she possessed the cauldron of inspiration
(Celtic) Letha: Midsummer Harvest Goddess
(Celtic) Little Flowers Goddess of sex
(Celtic) Macha or Emhain Macha : Threefold Sun Goddess of fertility, war, and ritual games; associated with horse, raven, crow
(Celtic) Maeve: Goddess of Sexuality, fertility and power
(Celtic) Medb, Mab, Medhbh: Warrior Queen and Goddess of sex, fertility and sovereignty
(Celtic) Mei or Mai, Maia: Mother of Gwalchmai; solar and earth Goddess

(Celtic) Modrona or Modron, Modrona, The Great Mother of Mabon (Light)
(Celtic) Morgan Le Fay: Faere Queen, sorceress, shapeshifter, and beautiful enchantress
(Celtic) Morgana: The Death Mother of War and fertility
(Celtic) Morrigan or Morrigan: "The Phantom Queen or Great Queen" and sea goddess, she is the Triple Goddess of War who shapeshifts into a raven
(Celtic) Nantosuelta: River Goddess
(Celtic) Nemeton: Protectress of the sacred Dynemeton ;warrior Goddess of the oak groves and patron of thermal springs
(Celtic) Niamh or Neeve of the Golden Hair: Goddess of Love and Beauty
(Celtic) Ninue or Niniane, Niviene, Nymenvhe, Goddess, Stident and teacher tp Merlin, his consort
(Celtic) Sdav, Ancient deer Goddess of the forests and neture
(Celtic) Sheila na gig, Goddess of sex , brith, passion, and laughter
(Celtic) Sirona, Solar and astral Goddess
(Celtic) Taillte, Earth Goddess and forest mother to lugh
(Celtic) Triana, The triple Goddess sun-ana, earth-ana, and moon-ana, also Goddess of healing, knowledge, higher love, and (Celtic) Viviana or Vivian, Goddess of love, birth, life, mothers, childbirth, and chirdren her
(Celtiv) Frand: Shapeshifer and faery Queen of Ireland ; associated with the seagull
(Egyptian) Anuket or Anukis, Goddess of the river and fertility
(Egyptian) Bast, Loce, the arts, luxury, cats, lioness, pleasure, dancing, music, joy, health
(Egyptian) Hathor: Goddess of love, mother of creation, and mistress of everything beautiful
(Egyptian) Heket: Frog goddess of childbirth and creation
(Egyptian) Isis: is the Egyptian great goddess who, over time, has become associated with many forms os energies. She began as a deity associated with magic and motherhood, and evolved to lunar and solar energy, the secrets of life, wisdom, hidden
(Egyptian) Isis: magic, women, the moon, culture, healing
(Egyptian) Meskhenet: Goddess of Childbirth
(Egyptian) Nephthys: Goddess of Dreams, divination and hidden knowledge
(Gaulish) / (Celtic) Epona: Goddess of Fertility, Power ,and abundance: horses fertility sovereignty
(Greek) Althena, Goddess of wisdom anmd warriors and battle, the arts crafts, negotiation, olives, virginity, community, owls,
(Greek) Anadyomene, Sea-born Goddess of sexuality
(Greek) Aphrodite, Love romance, sex, passion, women, lust, beauty
(Greek) Artemis, Goddess of the moon and hunting, twin sister of Apollo; celibacy, fertility, hunting, protector of animals, the (Greek) Calliope, Muse of epic poetry
(Greek) Deirdre, One who gives warning, or the older from Derdriu, Oak prophet, humanized Goddess in red branch taleof the exile of sons of Uisnach, The daughter of the God Morgan
(Greek) Demeter, Goddess of fertility, marriage, and prosperity; the earth, agriculture, crops, motherhood
(Greek) Helen: Moon Goddess of childbirth and fertility
(Greek) Hera: Goddess of Matrimony, marriage, women, cockoos, three phases of womanhood ,Maiden,Mother and Crone
(Greek) Peneiope, Spring Goddess of fertility and sexuallity
(Greek) Psyche, Goddess of love
(Greek) Roman) Selene, Moon and love Goddess
(Hebrew) Cherubim, Goddess/God of sexuality and intercourse
(Hindu) Akupera, Goddess of moonlight
(Hindu) Annapurna, Great mother Goddess of abundance, giver of plenty
(Hindu) Lakshmi: Goddess of beauty and good fortune wealth, abundance, cows, lotus, hewwls
(Hindu) Maya: Goddess of Fertility
(Hindu) Parvati, Goddessof marital blessing
(Hindu) Shakti, Great monther Goddess, who embodies feminine energy
(mesopotamian) Tiamat, Great mother Goddess who tilk the form of a dragon

(Celtic) Llyr or Ler, sea God of music and king of the ocean
(Celtic) Lucha, carpenter God and shield-maker for the Tuatha De Danna
(Celtic) Lugh, success, excellence, comperition, adoptin
(Celtic) Mabon, God of sex, love, magick, prophesy, and power
(Celtic) Mananna, Shapeshfter, teacher, God of magick, the sea, and travel
(Celtic) Math son of Mathonwy, God of magick, wisdom, enchantment, and sorcery
(Celtic) Merlin, God of woodlands, and nature
(Celtic) Mider, God of the underworld and consort to etain, bard and chess player, associated, with the Isle of man, the faery hill of Bri Leith and chess
(Celtic) Nodens, God of dreams and sleep
(Celtic) Nuada, The Good father, first kin of tara, consort of fea, the war Goddess, and to Morrigan
(Celtic) Nwyvre, God of space and the firmament, consort to Arianthod
(Celtic) Ogma, God of elowuence, kn owledge, and literature, Ogma invented the Ogham Runes
(Celtic) Pryderi, God of youthful,, shapeshifter, and the son of GoddessRhiannon
(Celtic) Pwyll, God and prince of dyfed and king of the otherworlds, a pack of hounds ascompanies him
(Celtic) Robur, God of the forests, particularly oaks, froest king and monadic tree
(Celtic) Smertullos, God of the abyss and the unmanifested, the preserver and lord of protection
(Celtic) Sucellos, God of rivers, and twin to the Dagda, shapeshifter and God of fertilty ands death
(Celtic) Taliesin, God of Poet, prophet, and bard, sone of Kerridwen
(Celtic) Tarvos, God of vegetation and virility
(Celtic) Tethra, God of sea, and magic (Egyptain) Khonsm God of the moon, father is amon-ra
(Egyptain) Ma'at, God of the truth, order, justice
(Egyptian) Geb, Earth God whose brother is Nut, the sky God
(Egyptian) God of sex, fecundity and crops
(Egyptian) Gon of sun father of all Gods, he has a detachable eye that can go off on it's own
(Egyptian) Khnum, God of fecundity and creation
(Egyptian) Osiris, God of resurrection, agriculture, the underworld, afterlife, the husband to Isis
(Egyptian) Sun God, fahter of all Gods, He has a detachable eye that can go off in it's own
(Egyptian) Thoth, God of wisdom, time, architecture, language, mathematics, moon, science, writing,
(Egyptian) Anubis, The God of the unerworld, otherworld guide protection
(Greco-Roman) Hecate. Mysteries, the underworld, speelcraft, spellcasting, justice, dogs, horses, serpents, the moon widom
(Greek) Adonis, God of beauty, Love abd Vegetation
(Greek) Apollo, God of light and inspiration, Apollo is associated with prophecy (the oracleat Delphi functioned under his patronage) sun God pf poetry, creative arts, Healing, and divinationcreativity, including music, and drama, success, knowledge,
(Greek) Artemis, God of ceilbacy, fertility, hunting, protector of animals, the moon birth bees, bears
(Greek) Diancecht, From pastoral beginngings, associated with goat herding, became the God of ecstasy, sex, reveriry, and (Greek) Eros, God of passionate love, romance, passion, list, physical love
(Greek) Hermes, Intellect, communication, commerce, massages, travelers, divine messenger
(Greek) Hestia, domestic balance, health home fire, community, family, hospitality
(Greek) Hygeia, Healing, Helth
(Greek) Hypnos, Mesmerizing God of sleep and dreams
(Greek) Pan, God of lust, nature, wilderness passion, love, play, and pleasure
(Greek) Poseidon, sea, horses, dolphins,
(Greek) Zeus, God of Olymous, the powerful
(Hindu) Bhaga, God of marriage fortune and prosperity

(Norse) Freyja or Freya: Goddess of love, beauty, passion, fertility; love, passion, death shapeshifter prophecy , lust, battle
(Norse) Frigga: Goddess of feminine arts: associated with hawks and falcons domestic balance, prophecy herons
(Oreintal) Kwan Yin: Goddess of compassion and beauty
(Pan-Celtic) Brighid, Inspriation, Creativity, anima, children, women, hearth and home, healing smithcraft, metalwork, defense,
(PanCeltic) Cailleach, Goddess of earth, sky, moon, and sun,who controls the seasons and weather
(Peruvian) Tlazolteotl, Goddess of love
(Roman) Anna Perenna, Goddess of sexuality and fertility
(Roman) Diana, Goddess of moonlight and the hunt; light, fertility, childbirth, the moon, hunting
(Roman) Flora: Goddess of Fertility , sex proiscuity and spring
(Roman) Fortuna: Lady Luck: Goddess of love and sexuality
(Roman) Hecate: Originally a maiden goddess associated with light, Hecate became absorbed into the Greco -Roman culture as an older goddess associated with the night, magic, revenge, and justice, and the spirits of the dead.
(Roman) Juno: Goddess of matrimony
(Roman) Venus, Goddess of love sexuality
(Roman) Voluptas, Goddess of pleaser amd sensuality
(Scandinavian) Var, Goddess of love
(Weish/Celtic) Rhiannon, Queen Mother, Queen Mare, or the Great Queen underworld, birds, journeying, to the otherworld,
Welsh) Goddess of love, called the white Bosomed one & Venus of the northern ea, her name means Whit-rive
Gods
(Celtic) Aengus Mec Og or Angus, God of love and beauty, healer of souls, associated with romance and courting
(Celtic) Amaethon, Agriculture and harvest God called the harest king; associated with fruits and tools of the harcest
(Celtic) Arawn,God of Death, war, and ancestral God who was king annwn, the underworld; associated with the swine, magickal beasts, the ancestral tree, water spring, shapeshifting, and the cauldron
(Celtic) Bel or Bile, God of sun and light and healing, referred to us, the shining one, husband, of Belisama
(Celtic) Beres, God of fertility and agriulture
(Celtic) Bodb Derg or Bodb the Red, Son of Dagda and Boann, bard to the tuatha de Danann and king of the sidhe
(Celtic) Borvo or Bormo, God of healing and unseen and concealed truth and inspiration through dreams, know as the Golden God associated with hot spring and a golden harp
(Celtic) Camulus, God of war
(Celtic) Condatis, God of water
(Celtic) Cordemanon, God of knowledge, amcesrty, and travel, associated with the great book of knowledge, stone circles, and (Celtic) Creidne or Creidhne, Credne, Master sword maker named the bronze worker, associated with smiths, wrights, metal-
(Celtic) Dagda, God of abundance, love, pleasure, and plenty
(Celtic) Danu, Sovereignty, fertility
(Celtic) Dewi, The red dragon God, the emblem of wales
(Celtic) Diancecht, God of herbalism, healing, and physician to the God's, associated with the mortar and pestle
(Celtic) Dumiatís or Dumeatis, God of creative thoughts and teaching
(Celtic) Dwyane, God Of love
(Celtic) Dwyne, God of love and mischief
(Celtic) Esus, Woodland God associated with hunting the sword, the golden bull (Tarvos) and the bow and arrow, pictured as (Celtic) Fagug, Monadic God of all beech trees
(Celtic) Gobannon, The divine smith and God of magick, also called Goddan the wright, and Goddan sear, the master mason
(Celtic) Gwaichmel, God of love ands music, son of the Goddess Mei
(Celtic) Gwydion, shapeshifter and god of the arts, eloquence, kindness, and magick
(Celtic) Hellith, God of the seting sun and protector of souls of the dead
(Celtic) Kernunnos, Father God of virility, prowess, and nature

(Hindu) Chandra, God of fertility and the moon
(Hindu) Ganesha, Wisdom, luck, study, prosperity, abundance
(Hindu) Kama or Kamadeva, God of love, seed of desire
(Hindu) Krishna, God of erotic delight and ecstasy
(Hindu) Mitra, God of friendship
(Hindu) Sarasvati, God of the water, eloquence, study, arts and sciences, writing, music, speech, genius, inspiration
(Hindu) Shiva, God of the creation, embodies masculine energy
(Pan Celtic) Cernunnos, God of Forests, sovereignty, wildlife
(Roman) Cupid, God of love
(Roman) Jupiter, God of the light sky, wielder of thunderbolts, business, career, leadership,
(Roman) Mercury, The God of safe travel and communication
(Roman) Silvanus, God of the forests and agriculture, especially around woodland clearings
[Celtic] Gwyn ap Nudd, God of the Otherworld, the death chase, and the Wild Hunt
[Welsh] Gwydion, spellcraft, shapeshifting

On Baptize

Goddess and God I ask you to come to us. To on baptize this child of the crafted. So she/he can be reborn as a child of the old ways. I as the high priest of this coven of the Goddess and God on baptize this child from Jesus the father and the Holy ghost. Bless this child of the old ways and her/his daily paths. soothe her/his of her/his fears in all hours of the day and night. So she/he can be fair in your heart and care. May the Goddess and God's bless you

Opening pray

Everyone Stand

Oh Gracious Goddess! Oh Gracious God! We come before you today in perfect love and trust to praise your name. we request your presence here today; that you will guide us and keep our hearts pure as we gather here in search of knowledge.

Everyone face East

Spirits of the East; Children of Air, we request that you lend us your knowledge, intuition, and intellect all of your attributes which spark the mind to handle what lies ahead.

Everyone face South

Spirits of the South; Children of the Fire, request that you lend us your passion, determination and enthusiasm. All of your attributes which spark the Soul. Which we need to accomplish our goals.

Everyone face West

Spirits of the West; Children of the Water, request that you lend us your love, compassion, and sensitivity, All of your attributes which spark the Heart, so that we might show compassion for those less fortunate than ourselves

Everyone face North

Spirits of the North; Children of the Earth, request that you lend us your Endurance, Reliability, and stability All of your attributes which ground the body. Which we need to survive and follow the light.

Hall and Welcome

Closing pray

Everyone Stand

Oh Gracious Goddess! Oh Gracious God! Divine source from which all life flows, we thank you for being here with us today. And for the blessings that you have bestowed upon us. We pray that you will continue to guide us in your daily lives as we bid thee farewell.

Everything faces north.

Spirits of the North; Children of the Earth, thank you for lending us your attributes which grounded our bodies.

Everything faces West.

Spirits of the West; Children of the Water, thank you for lending us your attributes which Sparked our hearts.

Everything faces South.

Spirits of the South; Children of the Fire, thank you for lending us your attributes which Sparked our souls.

Everything faces East

Spirits of the East; Children of the Air, thank you for lending us your attributes which Sparked our Minds.

In the center we stand, between the elements, holding them forever together yet forever apart

May we draw upon the at will, keeping a balance in our daily lives

Hall and Welcome

Pagan 12 Steps

Step 1

We recognize that we have given away personal power by addiction to substances, that this has resulted in dysfunctional living, & that it is time to begin reclaiming our power & restoring balance to ourselves and our lives.

Step 2

Came to acknowledge that the divine power within can bring about healing change & harmony

Step 3

Chose to allow the divine within of our own spiritual path to be the central guiding force in ourselves & our lives

Step 4

Examined ourselves deeply and honestly on all dimensions-physical, mental, behavioral, metal & spiritual

Step 5

Acknowledged to the divine, to our egos, and to at least one ally what is unhealthy & unbalance in our bodies, thoughts emotions, behavior's and souls

Step 6

Were ready for the divine, within to work transformation to restore balance to ourselves & our lives

Step 7

Sincerely invited the divine within to dispel barriers to change and to facilitate transformation

Step 8

Made a list of all beings we have harmed, and become willing to make amends to them all

Step 9

Made direct amends to such beings as much as possible, except when to do so would cause harm to them or others or make a difficult situation worse

Step 10

Continued our process of self-examination, acknowledging our strengths as well as our problems, & promptly acknowledging our mistakes * our successes when they occurred

Step 11

Sought, through spiritual acuties such as rituals, meditations, chanting, dancing, rhythm making, invocations, prayers, vigils, nature walks, journal writing, and other practices, to strengthen our relationships with the divine within & to allow this dimension of ourselves to be the guiding force in our lives

Step 12

Having had as spiritual rebirth as a result of this process of healing transformation, we continue our work with these principles & are willing to share our story with who come to us in need

13 Goals of a witch

- 1 Know your self
 - 2 Know your craft
 - 3 Learn
 - 4 Apply Knowledge with wisdom
 - 5 Achieve Balance
 - 6 Keep your words in good order
 - 7 Keep your thoughts in good order
 - 8 Celebrate Life
 - 9 Attune yourself with the cycles of the earth
 - 10 Eat & breath correctly
 - 11 Exercise the body and mind
 - 12 Meditate
 - 13 Honor the Goddess and God's
-

THE WITCH REDE OF CHIVALRY

1. Chivalry is a high code of honor which is of the most pagan origin and it must be lived by all who follow the old ways.
2. It must be kenned that thoughts and intent put forth on this middy earth, will wax strong in other world beyond, and return ringing into creation, on this world that which has been sent forth thus one should exercise discipline for as he do plant so shall ye harvest.
3. It is only by preparing our minds to be as gods that we can ultimately attain godhead.
4. This above all else to they own self be true
5. A witch's word must have the validity of a signed and witnessed oath thus give your word sparingly, and adhere to it like iron.
6. Refrain from speaking ill of others, for not all truths of the matter may be known.
7. Pass not unverified words about another, for hearsay is, in large parts a thing of falsehoods.
8. Be thou honest with others and have and them know that honesty is expected likewise from them.
9. The fury of the moment, play folly with the truth, to keep one's head is a virtue.
10. Contemplate always, the consequence of they acts upon other's strive not to harm.
11. Diverse covens mat well have diverse views on love between members and others, when a coven or clan or grove is visited or joined one should discern quietly their practices and abide thereby.
12. Dignity a gracious manner and a good humor are much to be admired.
13. As a witch thou hast power and thy powers wax strongly as wisdom increases therefore.
14. Courage and honor endure forever their echoes remain when the mountains have crumbled to dust.
15. Pledge friendship and fealty to those who so warrant it strengthen others of the brethren and the shall strengthen thee.
16. Thou shall not reveal the secrets of another witch or coven. Others have labored had and long for them, and cherish them as treasures.
17. Though there may be differences between those or the old ways those who are once born, must see nothing must hear nothing.
18. Those how follow the mysteries, should be above reproach in the eyes of the world.
19. The laws of the land should be obeyed whenever possible, and within reason, for in the main they have chosen in wisdom.
20. Have pride in thyself, and seek perfection in body and mind, for the Goddess has said how can thou honor another unless you give honor to thyself first.
21. Those who seek the mysteries should consider themselves as the select id the Goddess and God's for it is the who shall lead the us if humankind to the highest if thrones and beyond the very stars.

STEPS TO PERFORMING A FULL RITUAL

1. Casting a Temple/Circle.
 - a. Make sure you have all the necessary equipment for your appointed circle.
 - i. Pentacle
 - ii. Water bowl/cup
 - iii. Water
 - iv. Incense [scented oil]
 - v. Censor
 - vi. Matches/lighter
 - vii. Chalice [any clean cup]
 - viii. Salt dish
 - ix. Salt
 - x. Wand [feather/plastic knife/power hand fingers]
 - xi. Candles [Gold {silver sub}, White, Yellow (East), Red (South), Blue (West), Green (North). The yellow, red, blue, and green candles can be the small birthday type candles as they are called the quarter candles. The gold and silver candles are the God and Goddess candles which remain on the altar and are used to light the quarter candles.
 - xii. Athame [feather/plastic knife/power hand fingers]
 - b. Cleanse the area of malevolent spirits.
 - c. Blessing of the salt and water
 - d. Defining the Circle (When possible having a physically drawn circle is ideal).
 - e. Challenge of Entrance (where appropriate).
 - f. Calling the Quarters
 - g. Calling the Deities
 - h. Quarter candle lighting
 - i. Sealing the Circle
 - j. Performing of Rites and Rituals
 - i. Esbat or Sabbat rituals should be performed every time a Circle/Temple is raised. (See attached Esbat rite for example, every Sabbat has its own rite.)
 - ii. Consecration and Purification rites.
 - iii. Initiation of new members, increased level, or Priest/ess.
 - iv. Blessings of Children or other members.
 - v. Memorialize deceased
 - vi. Healing rituals
 - vii. Any other Magick members wish to perform.
 - k. Cake and Ale Ceremony
 - l. Closing of the Rites
 - m. Closing of the Temple/Circle

Extended Basic Circle

This is a more elaborate circle casting the Basic Circle presented earlier.

Note: The names of the Deities used here can be changed or they can simply be called "Goddess" and "God," or "Lord" and "Lady."

Items required for the raising of this temple [substitute where necessary].

Pentacle

Water bowl/cup

Water

Incense [scented oil]

Matches/lighter

Chalice [any clean cup]

Salt dish

Salt

Censor

Wand [feather/plastic knife]

Gold candle

White candle

Yellow candle (East)

Red candle (South)

Blue candle (West)

Green candle (North)

Athame/Power hand fingers

The yellow, red, blue, and green candles can be the small birthday type candles as they are called the quarter candles. The gold and white candles are the God and Goddess candles which remain on the altar and are used to light the quarter candles.

All items in Bold are to be spoken out loud.

The temple is raised by the priest or priest helper doing the main ritual parts. The quarters can be called by other members or those who are in attendance.

Priest or priest helper lays out the temporary boundary of the temple, leaving an opening for all to enter. He welcomes them inside, and closed the entrance. He does this by again starting in the East and continuing around the circle until he returns back to the East.

At this point the priest may anoint the foreheads of all within, using consecrated oil from the altar if it is a part of the rites practice, saying:

I bless thee and consecrate thee that thou might worship within this sacred space and cause no harm.

2. Must have dedicated him/herself to a particular path of study or dedicated him/herself to a specific manifestation of the Goddess and God
3. Must have given at least 3 lessons not otherwise given by other group members. Giving lessons on the seeker requirements does not count nor does the lesson given as a seeker
4. Must have demonstrated leadership qualities within the group by actively participating, volunteering, being supportive of other members, demonstration of behaviors, and demonstration of knowledge

High Priest & Elder Position Duties

The duties of the high priest are. 1 Lead the opening prayer. 2 Help the group stay focused on the task at hand. 3 Be a leader both through verbal discussions and by behavioral example. 4 Be prepared to do any rites, ceremonies, or circles/ Temples necessary within the group. 5 Be prepared with pagan related activities to do such as lessons or topics to discuss. 6 Lead closing prayer. 7 Offer support/ mentorship to others members seeking it out. 8 Coordinated with resource person the needs of the group, 9 Be responsible for coordinating group items such as sage, oils, crackers, tea, candles etc and finally. 10 To be at door at closing to shake hands and giving blessings. If possible, with place and time constraints, the high priest should be the first one in and the last one out. The high priest should be the person who sets up the area for services every week. cleans up when done, greets everybody as they enter and says goodbye as they leave.

Elder of the East

The elder of the East's job is to keep track of the schedule calendar for the group. This consists of who is going to present lessons, presentations, assignments, Ceremonies, rites, circles/ Temples, etc anything else that is to be scheduled for group times. It is also his/her job to routinely pass the calendar around for sign ups and make sure any dates have at least one thing occupying them. The eight sabbats should never be crowded with items as these are holy days and deserve the attention plus the ceremonies tend to take longer than others

Elder Of the south

The elder of the south's job is to be fire keeper for the group. During all smudging ceremonies and any other ceremony where we are given burning rites, it is his/her job to wield the flame.

Elder of the west

The elder of the west's job is to take care of the group's book of shadows, group owned lessons, keep notes of what has transpired in groups especially milestones such as seeks joining, initiations, etc. So that those who come after us can see what we have accomplished

Elder of the north

The elder of the north's job is to keep track of the books available to us within the religious library and to the best of his/her ability keep track of what pagan books have checked out by at least our group. He/she is responsible for keeping track of the financial records of the group. He/she is also responsible for keeping track of all other goods the group has, needs, and wants so that when it comes time to purchase items we have lists and requests

Sage Hypnux

100 Freeman Dr
St Peter MN 56082

(Feernyx)

For the Goddess and God
For the ancients
For our brothers and Sisters
Blessings be

Mission statement

the purpose of the coven is to encourage the in depth study of pagan beliefs, no matter the path, without judgment or restriction. We do this by engaging in personal and group academic research and education

We promote the education of all paths through a giving of knowledge by sharing of lessons and readings.

We promote the creation and sharing of rituals, circles, meditations, images and other spiritual art form.

We promote an understanding & tolerance of pagan beliefs in mainstream society.

We Promote the unity within the group by spending quality time with members of weekly meetings

- 5 Follow the law of power or similar creed (as Approved by circle of 5)
- 6 Follow starhawk's law of three
- 7 All greater sabbats are to be done by initiated members only
- 9 Those who are seekers students and are wishing to be initiated need to have fulfilled all requirement and be in good standing with the coven for minimum of 6 months unless preapproved by a unanimous vote of all initiated members. This approved by a unanimous

10 Those initiates wishing to attain their priest ranking within the coven need to have fulfilled all requirements, have been within the group for a minimum of 1yr and been in good standing with the coven for a minimum of 6 months unless preapproved by a unanimous vote of all members. This should only be done in times of need to fill ranks to low numbers

11 There needs to be no unnecessary movements during circles, ritual and or lessons

12 Respect is to be shown to everyone within the circle and courtesy offered at all times, from greeting at the beginning to farewells at the end. Seekers should be greeted with a ritual

13 Conversations, if necessary need to be limited to ritual necessity, dealing with subjects and concerns related only to the ongoing rites or lessons being given at times.

14 Everyone must have a notebook with them during coven meetings

Seeker Initiation Requirements

The following is required of all seekers students wishing to be initiated into the coven

Self-dedication can not be done until a minimum of 1 month in the coven and an initiation can not be done until a minimum of 6 months in the coven and both only with approval of mentor, HP & All elders See group expectations #9 for exceptions

You must also write essays on the following, to be included is what it means to you, how you intend to follow it, and how it affects your relationship with the Goddess and God and your chosen path. You do not need to do them in any particular order nor prior to presentation for their approval.

1. 13 goals of a witch

Also The following must be performed

2. Starhawk's law of three

Do One Lesson preferably one of your own

3. The law of power

making or modified from existing

4. The law of the craft

Perform a circle casting preferably one of your own making or modified from existing

5. The witch's cord of chivalry

Cast a spell preferably one of your own making or modified from existing

Perform a ritual preferably one of your own

making or modified from existing

White your mentor may ask you to do some additional things, over and above previously mentioned, the above are required by the coven

Priest Initiation Requirements

The following is required of all initiates wishing to attain the rank of Priest in the coven

An initiate must have been with the coven for a minimum of 1yr and must have been in good standing with the coven for a minimum of 6 months

1. Must have performed at least 3 sabbats at least 1 of which must have been a greater sabbat

By-Laws

High Priest and Elder Elections

On Samhain (Oct 31st) of each year or the meeting prior to this date, elections will be held for all elder position and high priest position.

To be elected you must be an Initiated member in good standing with the coven.

Approximately 2 weeks prior to the election all member wishing to should submit their names for positions and then give the group a brief (5 to 10 Minutes) explanation for why they feel they should be voted into the position.

All member, from seekers on up. Up are allowed to vote. In the case of a tie vote, all others names will be removed from the vote except those who tied and then a revote. Should there still be a vote then the current High Priests vote will be the tie breaker.

Positions will be voted on by high Priest, East Elder, South Elder, North Elder, West Elder.

With the position of back up High Priest being the person whom came in second for the high Priest position. This person can also hold another position. At this time any initiated member of the coven can volunteer to take on the high Priestess position for the sake of ceremonies that require one. A reminder that this position is to be taken to heart for when in the role of high Priestess you will be directly representing the lady.

All positions are for 1yr. At anytime a member may chose to step down from his position though he should be able to give a clear reason for doing so. A member may only be striped of his position if he has fallen out of good standing, been given ample opportunity by the group to improve, and by an unanimous vote of the circle of 5. Upon a high Priest or Elder stepping down or being stepped of his position and immediate vote will be called of fill in for said position for the remainder of the year.

The circle of 5 includes the high Priest and all 4 Elder. Should one of the elders be absent or should the circle of 5 be called to deal with an Elders behavior then an initiate in good standing can be asked to stand in substitution.

Why By-Laws Are Necessary

By-Laws are an agreed terms within a group that offer structure to said group

We Issue by-laws for the same reason society issues laws at large. These are guide lines and principles for how members are to function on a day to day level. It also allows the group to hold individuals accountable to these actions since by signing the by-laws you are agreeing that you understand them and that you will abide by them

By-laws are like all laws and may be challenged by individuals or clarifications requested. If this done a circle of 5 will be called with the high priest having the tie breaking vote

General Group Expectations

We are collective group studies many different paths in the pagan/Wiccan faith. We are a fairly new group here in St Peter. We have the following By-Laws put into place for our Coven.

- 1 Come with an opened mind to learn the ways of the old and the ways of the craft
- 2 Follow the 13 goals of a witch or some form of similar guidelines (as Approved by circle of 5)
- 3 Live by the wiccan rede or some form of pagan rede. (as Approved by circle of 5)
- 4 Follow the Witches rede of chivalry or other form of Pagan code of chivalry (as Approved by circle of 5)

Fellowship of the fallen oaks coven

By-Laws Sunday
May 22 2011

Inside

General Group
Expectations, 3
Seeker Initiation
Requirements, 3
Priest Initiation
Requirements, 4
High Priest & Elder
Position Duties, 4
Mission Statement,
5
By-Law Violation
Agreement, 5
Signature Page, 6

Extended Basic Circle

Temple raising announcement:

The temple is about to be fully erected, let all within be here of their own free will and accord, in peace and love, let any that do not agree with the work to be done today leave now without fear or blame, in love and in peace. So mote it be!

Cleansing the area:

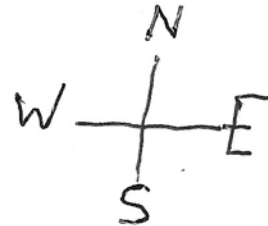

Once this is done the priest then turns and starts in the East, walking counterclockwise, sweeping away with his power hand saying (each line between the quarters):

(Walking to the North) All spirit's, evil or malignant be,

(Walking to the West) know this place is not for thee.

(Walking to the South) Be gone! Depart from me!

(Walking to the East) By my will, so mote it be.

Then turning and walking clockwise, sweeping with his receptive hand (towards himself) says:

(Walking to the South) Red spirits, black, white spirits, gray

(Walking to the West) Come Ye! Come Ye! Come who may

(Walking to the North) round and about, through-in and through-out,

(Walking to the East) the good come in and the ill stay out!

Blessing of the salt and water:

The priest then continuing around clockwise to the altar takes the salt dish with the salt in it and places it onto the altar with his power hand. Then with his athame/power hand fingers, places the pint of his athame into the salt saying:

Salt is life, let this salt purify, as we use it in this rite.

The salt is then removed from the altar with the receptive hand and kept in the receptive hand, the water bowl/cup is then placed onto the altar with power hand. Place three pinches of salt into the water stating the following blessing (each line for one pinch of salt):

(First pinch) May this salt bless this water, (Second pinch) may this water become sacred, (Third pinch) as we use it in this rite.

Then the salt is returned to the spot on the altar where it was and the water bowl/cup is then raised in blessing with both hands saying:

With this blessing of the Lady Hera, and her Lord Zeus, so mote it be!

Extended Basic Circle

Defining the circle

Then the priest takes the blessed water around the circle in a clockwise motion starting in the East, sprinkling the quarters only with three sprinklings, then moving between the quarters saying (one line per cross quarter):

(Walking to the South) Salt and water by casting thee,

(Walking to the West) Let no spirit or unknown presence be,

(Walking to the North) Except in true accord with me,

(Walking to the East) By my will, so mote it be!

Then continuing around the circle clockwise sprinkling the salt and water onto the ground saying (one line per cross quarter):

(Walking to the South) With this water blessed by the Lady Hera

(Walking to the West) and her Lord Zeus

(Walking to the North) and from the power within,

(Walking to the East) I cast this circle!

The priest then returns the water bowl/cup to the altar and picks up the censor, lights it with the power hand, then returning to the East of the circle in a clockwise motion censuring the circle. Forming an earth elemental pentagram at each quarter says:

From East to East, Sky to Ground

Repeats this at each quarter until he reaches the East once again, then he says:

This circle that I cast, and now is bound!

Priest returns to the altar and replaces the censor.

Challenge of Entrance

(To be done only if a member, student, or new initiate is to be given individual entrance, and has not been a part of the foregoing ceremony and needs to be brought in at this point, otherwise omit this section.)

Priest: How do you enter this Circle?

Respondent: Of my own free will and accord with perfect love and trust.

Priest: If there is doubt in your heart, or fear in your mind, it would be better that you forever remain not a part of this group. How do you feel, and what passwords do you bring?

Respondent: I enter with perfect trust and faith, I bring only perfect love and complete trust.

The circle is opened in the area between the North and East points, and the person is allowed into the circle. Then the circle is again sealed at that point.

Extended Basic Circle

Calling the Quarters

Priest: Caller of the (East, South, West, North) quarter call your quarter.

Quarter caller/Priest (facing out from the circle): O, ancient guardians of the (East, South, West, North), elements of (Air, Fire, Water, Earth) we ask that you join us, bear witness to this rite.

Note: The calling of the quarters is repeated until all 4 are done.

Calling of the Deities

Priest: Caller of the Deities, call the God.

(A helper, standing to the West of the altar, facing East, raises his/her hands in welcome, calling the god.)

Helper: Mighty Lord Zeus, guardian of all creatures free and wild, we ask that you attend us, as we perform this sacred rite.

Priest: Caller of the Deities, call the Goddess.

(A helper, standing to the East of the altar, facing West, raises his/her hands in welcome, calling the god.)

Helper: Gracious Lady Hera, Goddess of everything wonderful and good, we ask that you attend us as we perform this sacred rite.

Priest: The presence of the noble Goddess Hera extends everywhere, through out the many strange, magick, and beautiful worlds, to all places of wilderness, enchantment, and freedom.

Quarter Candle Lighting

(This section may be eliminated if desired.)

The priest gives him/her a candle, which is lit from the altar candle, and the person then returns to the quarter, facing out from the circle and says (repeat for each quarter):

Priest: Watcher of the East quarter comes! (Caller comes forth to light candle and returns.)

Caller: Our Goddess is a Lady of joy, the winds are Her servants.

Our God is of true compassion; cool upon our face is the breeze of His being.

Priest: Watcher of the South quarter comes! (Caller comes forth to light candle and returns.)

Caller: Our Goddess is a Goddess of Love, at Her blessing and desire, the sun brings forth life anew.

Our God is Zeus, life potential, the power, the glory, and the fire of all creation.

Priest: Watcher of the West quarter comes! (Caller comes forth to light candle and returns.)

Caller: The seas are the domains of our serene Lady; the mysteries of the depths are hers alone.

The thunder of His being is the mystery of the source, our Lord is the fleck of foam, His coming and His going.

Priest: Watcher of the North quarter comes! (Caller comes forth to light candle and returns.)

Caller: The Lady Hera, is awesome, the powers of death bow before Her.

The strength of our God is such that he might lift the world to touch the stars. Yet gentle is He ever as a lover, the powers of life springing forth.

Extended Basic Circle

Sealing the Circle

Priest now takes the wand and starting in the East, draws it along the entire circle clockwise making a complete pass returning back to the East, saying:

Priest: The circle is sealed, and all herein are totally and completely apart, from the outside world that we might glorify the Lady Hera and the Lord Zeus, whom we adore and honor! They are our light, our life, and our movement.

Blessed be!

All say: Blessed be!

The priest now holds the wand out in salute towards the north, the helper then states the following with the coven/group repeating it.

Helper: Repeat after me these words.

As above, so below,

As the universe, so the soul,

As without, so within,

Blessed, gracious, and honored ones,

On this day do we consecrate to you

Our bodies

Our minds

And our spirits.

Blessed Be!

Rites and Rituals

Depending on the occasion, whatever rites or ritual are appropriate are done now. Esbat and Sabbat rituals; items can be consecrated and purified; new members initiated; children blessed; deceased members memorialized; healing rituals; magick; etc.

Cakes and Ale

The rite of Cakes and Ale is to be done now. It is a time to refresh and greet each other. This is not a necessary part, but should be included as a thanksgiving section of ritual.

The priest or helper can come forward, bless the cakes and ale (food and drink) with thankfulness for blessing our bodies, after which it is shared with the members. Items are passed from east clockwise back to the altar. They are given to the priest and helper(s) last.

Closing of the Rites

When finished priest will take the wand and tap out each candle starting in the north and moving counter-clockwise saying:

Priest: Our rite draws to its close.

O' lovely and gracious one, honored mighty one, be with each of us as we depart.

Extended Basic Circle

Closing of the Temple

The temple clearing is done in the reverse of that in which it was cast; the simple rule to follow is that which is last is first.

Priest: Bid farewell to our Lady and our Lord.

Helper: Gracious Lady Hera and mighty Lord Zeus, we thank you for your presence, may there be peace between us, go if you most stay if you will.

Hail and farewell!

Priest: Caller of the (North, West, South, East) release your quarter.

Quarter caller (facing out from the circle): Oh ancient guardians of the (North, West, South, East) elements of (earth, water, fire, air) we thank you for your attendance. Go if you must, stay if you will.

Hail and farewell!

Continue until all four quarters are released.

Then once the quarters are released the circle is dissolved. The priest starts in the East moving in a counter-clockwise motion with his receptive hand extended he draws the energy back into himself saying:

This sacred space has now served its purpose; I now return it to its former use. Let all spirits who might have been trapped within its bounds be now freed. The circle is open, but forever remains whole, may all go in peace and love.

The temple is closed!

So mote it be!

(All together)

Merry shall we meet, merry shall we part, merry shall we meet again!

End of ceremony.

Esbat Ritual

The Erecting the Temple is performed.

Priest/ess: "Once more we meet together, one with another, to share our joy of life and reaffirm our feelings for the gods."

First Covener: "The Lord and the Lady have been good to us. It is meet that we thank them for all that we have."

Second Covener: "They know that we have needs and they listen to us when I call upon them."

So do I thank the God and the Goddess for those favors they have bestowed upon me."

Then, in his own way, he gives his thanks and/or requests help. He then rings the bell three times and says:

"An' it harm none, do what thou wilt.

Thus runs the Wiccan Rede.

Whatever I desire; whatever I would ask of the gods; whatever I would do; I must be assured that it will harm no one—not even myself—my life; my love—and it will be thrice rewarded.

But should I send forth harm, then that too will return thrice over."

Here the Witch may sing a favorite song or chant, or play an instrument.

Beauty and strength are in the Lord and the Lady both.

Patience and love; wisdom and knowledge."

(If the Esbat is taking place at either the Full or the New Moon, then the appropriate segment is inserted at this point. Otherwise, go directly into the Cakes and Ale Ceremony.)